We are the Lord's

January 18, 2024

Mr. Brian Michael B. Gaherty
4619 Pinebrook Ln.
Houston TX 77053-1107

Dear Mr. Gaherty,

As the Archbishop of Galveston-Houston, I must often create and look ahead to anticipate what is yet to come to ensure our Archdiocese has enough. When the weight of the needs of caring for the people in our church gets too heavy, I think of how we are blessed to have one another and countless opportunities to put His divine calling into action.

St. Paul's Letter to the Romans reminds us that we are not our own. "We are the Lord's!" Each of us must live according to God's will and serve Him in everything we do. When we do, we extend love, compassion, and support to those most in need. One of the ways that you can serve God and his Church is by supporting the annual Diocesan Services Fund (DSF), which provides funding for 64 ministries dedicated to serving those most in need.

When you contribute to DSF, you express your gratitude to God for the many blessings He has given you. Whether through the distribution of food to the hungry, shelter to the homeless, formation of our future priests, education and faith formation for our youth, or peace to the broken-hearted, your generosity is a testament to your love of Christ. It helps ensure we are able to make His will possible, together.

Mr. Gaherty, thank you for your gift last year to the Diocesan Services Fund. I am deeply grateful for your generosity, which served as Christ's hands and feet, providing for those who are on the margins, hungry, or suffering in our midst.

You also enabled us to expand our reach and be true witnesses to the fact that "We are the Lord's." I hope you will prayerfully consider renewing your support of DSF today at donate.archgh.org.

Thank you again for your annual support of DSF. I pray that God will continue to give each of us, as one Body in Christ, the courage to serve as His hands and feet in our community. May God continue to bless you abundantly for your generosity. I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Daniel Cardinal DiNardo

Brian M.gaherty, someone needs YOU to offer a bit of joy and hope this Christmas . . .

Christmas = Joy. Unless life has crashed down around you. We may not readily notice them, but many are struggling: homeless, hungry, feeling hopeless. For them, Christmas will be a day of grief.

PLEASE share the joy of Christmas with them! As you give, and as you sign and return the card, you'll step into a hurting life to offer help, hope, and healing. It starts with a hot meal—your card will be there. Then you'll offer shelter, clothing, other necessities—and most importantly, the hope of the Gospel.

Every $1.94 given provides another crucial meal—and the possibility of life transformation through faith in Christ. As you give, please sign and return the note: your personal, heart-to-heart invitation, that says to someone in crisis: "Please come experience God's love!" God bless you!

Dear Mr. Gaherty,

Thank you, friend! On behalf of the children of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, I send you my utmost gratitude for your gift of $3.01 in November 2023. Generous gifts like yours do so much to help support our research and treatment for all the children who turn to us each year -- children like Kavya, JP and Amyra.

Though St. Jude is a place filled with hope, one heartbreaking thing connects all the girls and boys in our care -- they are being treated for cancer or another life-threatening disease. These children were all referred to St. Jude. And once here, our doctors placed each one of them on a special treatment plan to give them hope for a second chance at life.

Because of generosity like yours, families never receive a bill from St. Jude for treatment, travel, housing or food -- so they can focus on helping their child live. St. Jude families are so grateful for friends like you who help make it all possible.

Your donation is truly a gift of hope for thousands of children around the world, just like Kavya, JP and Amyra. On behalf of the children and families of St. Jude, we thank you for your support. God bless your good heart.

Brian M. Gaherty
4619 Pinebrook Ln
Houston, TX 77053-1107

January 2024

Dear Brian M.Gaherty,

“Winter weather?” It might be mild; it might be brutal.

But it’s never really dangerous . . . is it?

Not really, for you and me. We can get inside, or maybe even stay inside. And when we have to be outside, we have good, warm clothing to wear.

Yet for someone living outdoors, even the mildest winter is miserable. No warm house, no warm bed . . . and no clothing is really warm enough for living day after day, night after night, in winter weather. In fact, when temps really drop overnight, someone sleeping in an alley or under a bridge can actually die just from being so cold.

For the sake of that person . . . homeless, hurting, hungry . . . maybe even a family with children who’ve lost their home . . . I’m hoping and praying you can provide meals and shelter.

- Would you please return one or both of the enclosed Meals & Shelter Vouchers along with your gift in the same total amount—to bring people in off the streets and offer them help and hope in Jesus’ name?

Hundreds of men, women, and children will need help this winter, Brian M.Gaherty.
This is my request on their behalf:

Please pray about how generous you can be.

One night of safe shelter and a full day of healthy meals costs just $27.39. Could you give to provide one night of shelter and one day of meals for hungry, homeless people in crisis this winter? Or maybe you could give even more.

Your gift of love will offer the physical warmth of this Mission facility, but just as importantly, the warmth of a loving Christian family . . . plus a good meal, a safe place to sleep, fresh clothing, and the basic necessities of life—and also hope for the future. Every person who walks through our doors hears the Good News . . . and the Good News changes people.

You’ll touch the life of someone like Wilbert. He didn’t know God. He was struggling with addiction. But he had a good job. Then the business shut down. Wilbert struggled—but he survived. He found work again.

(over, please)

But then the business changed hands, and the new owners brought in their own people. Wilbert found himself out of work again. Out of money. On the streets. "I would never have envisioned myself sleeping in hallways, on park benches, in cars," he says. But there he was.

Outdoors, winter after winter, Wilbert's despair drove him into ever deeper dependency on drugs. "I was going down the road to destruction," he says. One day, he hit rock bottom. "I broke down," he remembers—"and I prayed." In that moment, Wilbert entered into the spirit of Psalm 116:1 (KJV): "I love the Lord, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications."

It was a turning point. God answered his desperate prayer. Wilbert found his way to our Mission. Your love rescued him. Here, he found what so many have found: a warm word of welcome, a place at the table, a healthy meal, then a change of clothes, the simple hygiene items that you and I keep in our medicine cabinets at home. A safe, warm, comfortable bed.

But also—beyond solving the problems of the moment—a turn toward the future: Your giving provides the tools for some precious soul to start rebuilding, to begin a whole new life: tools like Christian counseling. Skills training. Addiction recovery. Help finding work and lodging. Every program, every resource, Bible-based, fully tested, proven-effective.

- And at the heart of it all, the supremely important life-transforming message of God's love: the call to a new way of living, through faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior of your life.

This is the beautiful and powerful work you are a crucial part of when you give to Pacific Garden Mission.

And this is why today, I ask so boldly for your help.

Please offer a place of refuge for someone who's lost. They need help. They need hope. They need Jesus. You and I have the privilege of offering that hope. Sharing our Savior.

They won't need to stay here forever . . . but Christ can become their lifelong refuge. A simple meal and a safe, warm place to sleep can be the launching point for new life.

I don't know how much you can give, but I do know this: Whatever you give, lives will change, by the grace of God, because of you. Thank you in advance. May God bless you and keep you this winter!

Sharing Christ's mercy and love,

Philip Kwiatkowski
President

P.S. Winter is hard for some. But every $27.39 you give will offer a full day of shelter and meals. So please return your enclosed Meals & Shelter Vouchers along with your generous gift. Thanks again!

Dear Brian:

Someday, our legacies will tell about the impact we've made on others during our time on earth. It will demonstrate our use of both material and spiritual blessings and show future generations how the world is different because we were here.

Through your will or a Charitable Gift Annuity, you can leave a lasting legacy to your loved ones as well as to the causes you hold dear, directing the ripple of your life's impact onto future generations.

Making a simple designation in your will is an easy way to make a significant impact in carrying out your final act of stewardship. You don't have to be wealthy to make Boys Town a beneficiary in your will, even a smaller gift is important, but you do have to take action.

Another option to consider is funding a Charitable Gift Annuity as a way to safeguard your funds and provide a reliable source of income. This not only benefits the children at Boys Town - it also provides a stable income stream for you for the rest of your life.

Enclosed you will find our Spring planning newsletter that will provide information about your gift planning options and can help you choose the legacy you want to leave your family and to the world.

Please feel free to visit our website about other gift planning options at www.boystowngift.org. I would also like to invite you to request your free Guide to Gift Planning by returning the enclosed form. And if you would like to contact one of our Estate Planning Associates at our Gift and Estate Planning Office, you can call us toll-free at 1-888-332-3219. Our staff is here to answer your questions or help in any way we can.

Hopefully this letter reaches you in good health and safety.

How You Can Help Boys Town Make an Even BIGGER Difference!

Oftentimes, people ask what more they can do to actively help Boys Town bring life-changing care to children and families in need.

Now, you can do even more by connecting others to Boys Town's outreach and community programs. Think about the people in your life. You're probably aware of someone — a parent or child you love and care about — who is feeling overwhelmed or just needs some helpful advice.

Visit BOYSTOWN.ORG

Here's what you can do:

- > TELL THEM TO VISIT boystown.org/parenting, our website for advice and tips on raising happy, healthy children in today's world. There's plenty of practical, easy-to-use information from our experienced Boys Town experts.
- > ASK THEM TO BROWSE THE Boys Town Press® website for materials on parenting, child development and a wide variety of other child and family topics. On-line ordering is easy and fast.
- > SUGGEST LOOKING INTO Boys Town Common Sense Parenting® (CSP) classes. These fun, informative classes open the door to positive ways to parent children. Parents and other caregivers come away with new strategies for creating a happier, healthier home. (CSP classes may not be available in all areas.)
- > GET THEM TO CHECK OUT YourLifeYourVoice.org, an interactive website especially for teens. We know the Internet can sometimes be a dangerous place for young people. But on YourLifeYourVoice.org, the teens in your life will find a safe environment where they can express their thoughts, ask questions and get answers to challenges.

For people you know who want to work directly with kids:

- > TELL THEM TO VISIT boystown.org/foster-family-services to learn more about becoming a Boys Town Foster Parent. Our Foster Parents open their homes and hearts to children who need a safe place to live in the community. Boys Town provides training and continuous support.
- > ASK THEM TO BROWSE boystown.org/careers to learn more about becoming a Boys Town Family-Teacher® or Assistant Family-Teacher®. These trained professionals care for children who live in our residential homes at many of our sites across the country. They guide children toward their miracle of the heart.

Dear Brian,

Thank you for the gift of $3.01 received on 10/24/2023.

“He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed for he giveth of the bread to the poor”
Proverbs 22:9.

We know that God multiplies all the gifts that we receive, enabling us to do the work we do.

It is humbling to watch God in action at PGM. From a tiny store front with a handful of people, PGM has expanded to a 155,000 Sq. ft. building housing some 850-1000 men, women, and children. Over 30 weekly services proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. There are Bible classes for everyone. Many, even children, receive Christ as their Savior.

Dear Mr. Gaherty,

Most people never think they'll need the American Red Cross ... until an unexpected event turns their life upside down.

Take Bettye: This Alabama mom never imagined the smoke detectors that the Red Cross installed in her home would save her life just two months later. Then one night, the alarms went off, alerting Bettye and her family to a dangerous blaze. Red Cross volunteers arrived quickly to provide urgent support, including financial assistance.

"Those guys are awesome," says Bettye. "They truly helped us a lot and made me feel like somebody cared."

Compassionate neighbors like you ensure that the Red Cross and our dedicated volunteers can be there day or night to deliver comfort and hope when emergencies like winter storms and home fires strike, provide training in first aid and other crucial skills, allow for the collection of lifesaving blood, and more.

That's why I am asking you to renew your financial support of the American Red Cross with a generous donation of $15, $20 or any amount to our 2024 Annual Campaign today.

(over, please)

Over the last year, the American Red Cross of Coastal Plains Texas has helped 221 families. As your past support proves, you don't have to live next door to be a real neighbor. The people you have helped may not know your name, but they certainly know your kindness, compassion and humanitarian spirit.

Your support helps the Red Cross play a vital role in our community and across the country, ensuring we can continue to:

- Provide food, shelter, comfort and hope in times of crisis.
- Collect millions of units of lifesaving blood donations each year.
- Provide crucial training to help people prevent and respond to emergencies.
- Help members of the military, veterans and their families prepare for, cope with and respond to the challenges of military service.

Please support our 2024 Annual Campaign today and know that your gift will change the lives of those we serve tomorrow, giving hope to countless people across the country who need the Red Cross. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Brian,

Thank you for the gift of $2.00 received on 12/12/2023.

“He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed for he giveth of the bread to the poor”
Proverbs 22:9.

We know that God multiplies all the gifts that we receive, enabling us to do the work we do.

It is humbling to watch God in action at PGM. From a tiny store front with a handful of people, PGM has expanded to a 155,000 Sq. ft. building housing some 850-1000 men, women, and children. Over 30 weekly services proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. There are Bible classes for everyone. Many, even children, receive Christ as their Savior.

Your year-end gift will help St. Jude treat children like Connor.

Mr. Brian M. Gaherty
4619 Pinebrook Ln.
Houston, TX 77053-1107

Dear Mr. Gaherty,

Can you believe it? The year is almost over -- just a few weeks left! And what a year it's been, with its ups and downs, its challenges and triumphs.

This year, the children and families of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital have faced some of life's most difficult challenges -- battling childhood cancer and other life-threatening diseases.

So when the holiday season rolls around, we do everything we can to give all our girls and boys a break from hospital appointments between Christmas and New Year's, to give them extra time to play with siblings, cousins and friends. They should have the chance to wake up on Christmas morning in the comfort of their own homes -- just like healthy children do.

But sometimes, that's just not possible.

That's why I wanted to write you this letter. Before this year ends, won't you help St. Jude again, Brian?

Every year, cancer stands in the way of many families' Christmas dreams and plans. Please send your year-end, tax-deductible gift of $5, $10 or any amount you can give to help St. Jude doctors, nurses and scientists provide the care and research that could bring us closer to the day when no child's Christmas -- and no child's life -- is cut short by cancer.

Will you please give a year-end gift for children like Connor?

It all started just 6 days after Connor's little sister, Lanie, was born.

His mom noticed that he seemed really tired. Then his head and neck started to hurt.

When he began having trouble walking, Connor's worried parents took him to their local doctor. They left their 3-week-old baby girl with friends and set off on the hour-and-a-half-long journey.

Once there, doctors ordered an MRI, which revealed a tumor in Connor's brain . . .

(over, please)

Three-year-old Connor had brain cancer. Connor underwent emergency surgery to have a shunt placed to drain fluid and lessen the pressure on his brain.

After surgery to remove the tumor, Connor was referred to St. Jude for his continued treatment, which included chemotherapy.

Thanks to friends like you, families never receive a bill from St. Jude for treatment, travel, housing or food -- so they can focus on helping their child live.

Connor's mom said, "We wanted the best for Connor. St. Jude was at the top of that list. Until we got here and entered this world, we didn't know how wonderful St. Jude was. Concierge service, activities at the front desk for Connor to do. We did not realize that St. Jude helps take care of everybody, not just Connor."

Treatments developed at St. Jude have helped push the overall childhood cancer survival rate from 20 percent in 1962 to more than 80 percent today.

But as this year comes to a close, too many children are still fighting for their lives against these terrible diseases.

So we can't stop. Not until the day that no child dies from cancer. Won't you help us, Brian?

With the support of friends like you, it's our hope that more children will be able to spend Christmas at home with their loved ones, instead of in the hospital receiving much-needed treatment and care. But the truth is . . . that won't be the case for every child.

Please send your year-end, tax-deductible gift to St. Jude by December 31 to help us continue to care for children like Connor and help ensure our research teams can continue their work that could bring an end to these terrible diseases once and for all.

Connor's family is so grateful for the care St. Jude has shown them. His mom said, "This whole experience has been very eye-opening about how precious life is, how dedicated St. Jude is to preserving that life. Everyone really cares about what the mission is: saving lives. We will be forever grateful."

We know that we can't take one day off -- not even at Christmas. With just a few days left in 2023, please send your year-end gift of $5, $10 or any amount you can give to St. Jude while you are thinking about it.

Merry Christmas,

Marlo Thomas

P.S. To help your gift reach St. Jude before the year ends, please visit stjude.org/donatetoday to donate online. Support like yours since 2016 helps St. Jude families stay together -- at home or in the hospital. Thank you for supporting our children and their families during the holiday season and all year long.

P.P.S. God bless your good heart for your year-end gift to St. Jude.

March 2024

Dear Brian M.Gaherty,

When I walk into our kitchen, I see resurrection. Because I see my friend Aswad.

He serves in our Mission's kitchen, and he's a living testament to the resurrection power of God's love set in motion by your Christlike compassion and generosity.

I remember him 10 years ago—broken, lost, deeply addicted. But there was hope for Aswad . . . because there were people like you, Brian M.Gaherty, willing to pray and give and open the doors of our Mission. There was also hope because Aswad urgently wanted and needed new life.

The day he arrived, he was seated at our table. He received a hot meal. He found safe shelter. But most important of all, he heard the Good News: God loves you. He gave His Son so you can experience new life.

Today, Aswad is a bright light in our Mission family, a devoted husband and father, a servant-leader . . . a beautiful picture of 2 Corinthians 5:17: “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.”

The world looks forward to Easter Sunday. We look forward to Resurrection Sunday—because new life is the gift Jesus brought. Aswad is proof. And he's just one of many thousands who have experienced true transformation by God's grace through your generous support.

But another lost and broken soul will soon arrive on our doorstep. In fact, many will.

→ We'll serve around 1,800 meals a day, at a cost of $2.20 per meal, between now and Resurrection Sunday, to people in serious need.

As you give to Pacific Garden Mission, please return one or both of the enclosed Easter Meal Tickets and a gift of $8.80 to offer 4 meals—or $15.40 for 7 meals . . . maybe $24.20 for 11 meals. Or even more. Whatever you can give, you'll offer new life in this resurrection season!

(over, please)

To hear Aswad's story is to see your compassion in action. He had a rough childhood in a tough neighborhood. He was actually expelled from grade school for bad behavior. He started drinking early. Before long, he was using marijuana. At just 19, he began shooting heroin. It was a short, straight line from there to addiction.

For a time, Aswad managed to be a "functioning addict." But dysfunction followed. "I couldn't keep a job," he remembers, "and the little money that I did have went to my addiction."

Year after dreadful year, Aswad was physically, emotionally, and spiritually enslaved to heroin. But freedom was coming.

Even though he came to downtown Chicago just looking for "the best place to get a hustle on, to get the money to feed my addiction,"
God had a different priority: a resurrection priority.

When Aswad saw people walking into a place called Pacific Garden Mission, he was curious. He had no idea what God had in store. But after years of struggle, he longed for something different.

Aswad heard the Gospel message here. He found hope. He found shelter and support. He surrendered his addiction to the power of God's love. He dug deep into the Word. He started life over.

It started with a simple meal. I invite you to share such a meal with someone like Aswad this Easter season, someone whose heart is crying out for new life. Maybe they've lost their family, their job, their home. Maybe they're grappling with addiction, a medical problem, an unexpected financial crisis.

This Resurrection Sunday, with your help, they can discover what resurrection really means. They can experience the life-giving love of their heavenly Father.

That first Easter meal will pave the way to much more: Bible study, discipleship, Christian counseling, job training, connections to resources, tools for moving toward self-sufficiency. They'll finally be able to leave behind the old life of hunger, loneliness, and pain.

March 31 is fast approaching. I look forward to hearing from you soon, with a gift of redemption . . . transformation . . . resurrection . . . new life!

Sharing Christ's mercy and love,

Philip Kwiatkowski
President

P.S. For someone lost and alone, Easter Meal Tickets means new life—hope for the future. Thank you for giving what you can. God bless you!
